

Clearwater Casino Resort RV Park Terms & Conditions

Clearwater Casino Resort assumes no responsibility or liability for the safety or security of guests/visitors and their personal property. Clearwater Casino Resort is not liable for any damage to or loss of personal possessions, vehicles, equipment, or other property; or injuries to any occupants or visitors while at our RV Park. Clearwater Casino Resort reserves the right to seek reimbursement for harm to or destruction of Clearwater Casino Resort property. Guests may be required to leave for failure to comply with RV parking rules, or any other activity deemed not in the best interest of Clearwater Casino Resort. Guests who refuse to leave as directed will be reported to law enforcement. In addition to any other reimbursements, fees, or charges that may apply, Guests who are required to leave will be charged the daily fee for the current day, and if their reservation includes the following day, they will be charged the daily fee for the following day. Clearwater Casino Resort reserves the right to charge all such reimbursements, fees, or charges to the Guest's credit card or debit card, even if damage is discovered only after the Guest's departure.

It is impossible to have rules and regulations covering every contingency and situation and we reserve the right to update these rules and regulations at any time and without prior notice. Guests have the responsibility to inquire into any policy that may not be published in these rules and regulations. The absence of a particular policy from these published rules and regulations is not grounds for the granting of an exception.

Local law enforcement and Security Staff actively patrol the RV parking. Those who violate Washington State law, federal law, or tribal law shall be subject to sanction, including but not limited to criminal prosecution. Unlawful possession or use of controlled substances (drugs) is strictly prohibited and will not be tolerated.
